

HALF-DAY TRIP TO KLENOVICA – 23 May 2026

Experience the Authentic Story of the Klenovica scampi: Come to Klenovica. Feel the scent of the sea and fishing traps, listen to stories about the wind, and taste the purest gift of the Adriatic. Klenovica is a true hidden gem of the Adriatic, still preserving its authentic rhythm of life. The unique combination of underwater freshwater springs and the specific seabed of the Vinodol Channel gives the Klenovica scampi its distinctive sweetness and firm texture, highly appreciated by true seafood lovers.

The message of the people of Klenovica: “Here, food is not simply eaten – here, history is tasted in every catch. Thanks to the unique underwater springs and the specific seabed of our channel, the Klenovica scampi has become a benchmark of excellence. We do not offer just a meal; we offer the fisherman’s hand, the scent of a wooden boat, and a glass of wine perfectly paired with what we pulled from the blue Adriatic that very morning.”
